ttacking the Federal Center on Cemetery Ridge-Beginning of the End. Lee's plan was to attack and pierce the Federal center at Cemetery Ridge under commund of tien Hancock. It was an attack such as Napoleon had made suc-cessfully at Wagram, when Marabal Me-Donald, with a corps of 10,000 men, pierced the Austrian center and won a great victory. The solitary smoke of these shots was still fleating in the air when the whole Confederate line burst out in one great roar and blaze of cannon ading. One handred and thirty eight pieces of enmon opened their flery throats and sent their iron mossiles against the Federal center, to shake it, to tear it, to rend it if possible. From eighty guns, well posted on the ridge, the Federals made reply. For two hours this terrific storm of shot and shell continued, until the Federal chief of artillery slackened his fire, deeming it wise to hold in reserve his amountation to meet the infantry charge which he knew was coming. "NEARLY CRAZED with pain" is the sad cry of many a victin with pain the sadery of many a vector of rheumatism or neuralgia, and frequently other disease, such as kidney and liver complaints, are directly traceable to rheumatism or neuralgia. These diseases, so some unexplainable reason, are rapaily in creasing, and in many instances are the direct cause of much sickness which so hides its real origin as to be mistaken for other diseases. In curing rheumatism, new raigia, sick headache, and in many cases of kidney and liver troubles, Athlophores has wrought wonders. Those who have used it are best qualified to speak of its merit.

Said Mrs. Smith, of Washington, C. II Ohio, to the writer: "You can see I have been a great sufferer from neuralgia, le which I have lost the use of my left eye. amended to use Athlophoros, which I did. While it has not restored my evesight it has rid meet the neuralgia. I have used only two bottles. It has done wonderfor me, and I, as a long sufferer from neuralgia, would advise anyone suffering from the same to use Athlophoros.

Mrs. Ella Smith, 61 North Foster street Springfield, Ohio, says: "I did have rheu-matism and very badly, but not since I used Athlopheres. It was almost miracule way the medicine drove the disease from my system. I had only taken a few doses before it seemed to grasp and master the disease. It acted so quickly I was almost afraid to continue with the medicine. I did, however, by reducing the dose. Since that time I have been perfectly well and free from rheumatism. Ionly used a half-bottle stead-ily until I considered myself cured; then I took a dose occasionally to make myself doubly sure that it would not return.

Every druggist should keep Athlophoros and Athlophoros Pills, but where they can not be bought of the druggist the Athlo phoros Co., 112 Wall St., New York will send either (carriage paid) on receipt regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athlophores and 50c, for 17ths. The Medical Student's Suggestions A student in one of the medical colleges tells a story that proves the mutual ignorance of the fashiounble and unfashionable bulves of the world. The student class was deep in a clinic conducted by one of the most noted physicians in New York-a man who has much wealth as well as much learning. has much wealth as well as much bearing. The subject was a little girl who came from one of the poorest, wretchedest and fifthest quarters. The doctor questioned her concerning her malady, and what she had been doing to cause it. "Perhaps you have been eating strawberries," he suggested. March winds were blowing through the streets, and strawberries were $1 a box. The wretched little specimen of humanity, who would probably think herself favored by the gods if she could find a half dozen decayed strawberries on the sidewalk during the whole seaberries on the sidewalk during the whole son, shook her head in a dazed sort of sen, shesk her head in a dazed sort of way, as though she dan't know just what he meant. He went blandly on. "Not Ah, then you have probably eaten some fish!" Her face brightened now, and she drew herself up proudly. "Yes, we had fish once last summer." But even then the dector did not perceive the sad humor,—Chara Belle's Letter.

A Glimpse at the Czar. The reserve which for many reasons was forced upon the present cear while yet heir apparent seems to have grown into a settled habit. In society, during the St. Peter-burg senson, which, however, plainly bores him as much as it visibly delights the empress, there is nothing more striking than his majesty's mild and severe look at one and the same time. It is curious in this connection that among all his portraits painted since his accession there is no uniform and settled stamp of expression given to the face. For some time past, however, the gloomy cloud that used to hang about the brow long after the terrible death of his father has been gradually wearing away. In order to be seen perfectly at his case, he should be observed with his children in the grounds of Gatschina, where he is much more at home than in St. Petersburg. His physical strength, it is said, fully accords with his enormous size of body and limb, and one often hears it said that he can easily break an ordinary horseshoe with bare hands Of one thing there can be little doubt, and that is certainly his tenacity and obstinacy of opinion and purpose.-St. Petersburg Cor.

Is because they are usually recommended to cure all diseases. This must be a mistake, because the great success of the Shaker Extract of Roots (Siegel's Syrup) is due almost solely to the fact that it is made to cure one single disease, namely, indigestion, for which it is a certain remedy. The aching head, constipated bowels, causing languor and fatigue, vanish as soon as this remedy is used. The Shaker Tar Capsules cure coughs.
